Market and Culture I will never forget the emotional impact of Sacha Rubinstein's demonization of state support and his apotheosis of the role of the market in the cultural field in Russia. So in advance of actual events we suddenly had a premonition of what was going to happen of the turmoil which was about to radically change the socio-political scene of Central and Eastern Europe. Six years later in 1994 we met again in Budapest for a Conference on The Distribution of Roles between Government and Arts Councils Associations and Foundations

Urban Planning and the Housing Market
Nicole Gurran, Glen Bramley, 2017-05-31 This book re-examines the role of urban policy and planning in relation to the housing market in an era of global uncertainty and change. The relationship between planning and the housing market is a contested problem across research, policy and practice. Problems with housing supply and affordability in many nations have been linked to planning system constraints while the global financial crisis has raised new questions about the role of urban planning, regulation and processes in responding to housing market trends. With reference to international cases from the United Kingdom, the United States, Ireland, Hong Kong and Australia, the book examines how different systems of urban planning and governance address complex and dynamic housing market trends. It also offers practical guidance on how urban planning can support an efficient supply of appropriate and affordable homes in preferred locations. A detailed study which explains and decodes the workings of the planning system and housing market, this book will be of particular interest to scholars of human geography and urban planning as well as housing policy makers and practitioners. Urban Infrastructure
K. Wellman, Marcus Spiller, 2012-07-30 The magnitude of investment, the long time frames involved and the influence of pre-existing infrastructure on urban infrastructure provision make a coordinated approach to forward planning, policy development and implementation essential. There are major challenges in making decisions on urban infrastructure and getting management structures and processes in place. Getting it right generates long-term dividends; getting it wrong involves major costs often borne by taxpayers. Urban Infrastructure: Finance and Management is posited on a strong belief that the physical structure of cities and the efficiency of infrastructure services delivered are driven by efficiencies within individual infrastructure sectors. Lessons learnt across these sectors and the ability to coordinate and integrate sectors to generate economies of scale. This necessitates an interdisciplinary approach integrating knowledge from finance, governance, planning and management as well as the characteristics of the individual urban infrastructure sectors involved. Here it is not only about getting the initial decisions and policy settings right but also ensuring effective implementation. A major theme running through the book is the nature of institutions and the governance structures responsible for delivery and management of urban infrastructure and the decision-making processes involved. The editors have taken a deliberately pragmatic approach to the finance and management of urban infrastructure: chapters are cross-sectorial and present both theory and practice. This book is for students and practitioners in policy planning, urban management, infrastructure finance and management The Mekong Delta System Fabrice G. Renaud, Claudia Kuenzer, 2012-06-01 This book about the Mekong Delta presents a unique collection of state of the art contributions by international experts from different scientific disciplines about the characteristics and pressing water related challenges of the Mekong Delta in Vietnam The Mekong Delta belongs to one of the areas which are to expect the largest challenges concerning environmental change and climate change induced sea level rise The Delta acts as the rice bowl of Southeast Asia and is home to over 17 Million people who need to cope with ecologic as well as socio economic changes linked to the rapid economic development of the country Annual floods severe droughts salt water intrusion degrading water quality tropical cyclones hydrologic changes due to hydropower projects in the upstream of the Mekong coastal erosion and the loss of biodiversity are some of the problems in the region Heterogeneous resource management responsibilities and the fact that the Mekong and thus also the Delta is influenced by six countries aggravate the situation Integrated water resources management and fostered cooperation and information exchange are pressing needs for the sustainable development of the Delta Public Utility Holding Companies United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, 1935 Struggling for Self Reliance Bob Breen, 2008-10-01 Military force projection is the self reliant capacity to strike from mainland ports bases and airfields to protect Australia s sovereignty as well as more distant national interests Force projection is not just a flex of military muscle in times of emergency or the act of dispatching forces It is a cycle of force preparation command deployment protection employment sustainment rotation redeployment and reconstitution If the Australian Defence Force consistently gets this cycle wrong then there is something wrong with Australia s defence This monograph is a force projection audit of four Australian regional force projections in the late 1980s and the 1990s valid measures of competence It concludes that Australia is running out of luck and time The Rudd Government has commissioned a new Defence White paper This monograph is Exhibit A for change International Business Courts Xandra Ellen Kramer, John Sorabji, 2019 This book provides a comprehensive critical evaluation of the institutional design and procedural rules of established and emerging international business courts It focuses on major European and global centres It assesses to what extent these courts the competition between them and their interrelationship with arbitration contribute to justice innovation It considers their impact on access to justice and the global litigation market as well as their effect on the rule of law Debt Markets and Investments H. Kent Baker, Greg Filbeck, Andrew C. Spieler, 2019 This book examines the dynamic world of debt markets products valuation and analysis It also provides an in depth understanding about this subject from experts in the field both practitioners and academics This volume spans the gamut from theoretical to practical and offers a useful balance of detailed and user friendly coverage Higher Education, Stratification, and Workforce Development Sheila Slaughter, Barrett Jay Taylor, 2015-11-24 This work analyses how political economic shifts contribute to competition within higher education systems in the US EU and Canada The authors highlight competition for prestige and public and private subsidies exploring the consequences of these processes through theoretical and empirical analyses Accordingly the work highlights topics that will be of interest to a wide range of audiences Concepts addressed include stratification privatization of formerly public subsidies preference for high tech academic fields and the vocationalization of the curriculum i e Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM fields selected professions and business rather than the liberal arts or the Humboldtian vision of the university Across national contexts and analytic methods authors analyze the growth of national policies that see universities as a sub set of economic development casting universities as corporate research laboratories and education as central to job creation Throughout the volume the authors make the case that national and regional approaches to politics and markets result in different experiences of consequences of academic capitalism While these shifts serve the interests of some institutions others find themselves struggling to meet ever greater expectations with stagnant or shrinking resource bases
